

“lush strawberries and cola...
silky mid palate... vanilla finish.”

*W*e have been farming our land since 1943, blending our northern Italian heritage with our California roots.

Our family chose the lion from St. Mark’s Cathedral in Venice, Italy to symbolize our rich history. Today, we continue this tradition by offering Estate wines for you and your family to enjoy.

TASTING NOTES:

Our single vineyard Pinot Noir, which is grown in the warm days and foggy evenings of the Anderson Valley, opens with aromas of sandalwood and raspberries. Your palate is greeted with flavors of lush strawberries and cola. A silky mid palate is complemented by round tannins and a toasty vanilla finish.
